MILLS IN THE SENATE.

TOOK HIS SEAT IN THAT BODY THIS MORNING.

Floral Decorations Adorned the Seat of the Great Texan—His Friends of the House Witness the Ceremonies.

WASHINGTON, D. C. March 30.—The feature of the morning business in the senate was the introduction of Senator elect R. C. Mills, of Texas, into his new dignity. A handsome floral basket and two bouquets of roses, lilies and carnations adorned the desk in the senate chamber of the framer of the Mills bill. The seat of Mr. Mills is on the extreme right of the Democratic side. It is in the second row, but is one of the least desirable seats in the chamber. Senator Vilas has a desk immediately in front. A number of Mr. Mills' colleagues in the house came over to the north end of the capital building to witness the ceremonies.

A RECEPTION IN THE HOUSE.
On the floor of the house this morning before the hour of noon, there were but few members, but these few congregated behind the screens on the Democratic side and tendered an informal reception to Mr. Mills of Texas who today severs his long association with the lower branch of congress in order to assume the Toga of the senate. While he was congratulated on every hand upon his promotion congratulations were blended with earnest regrets that the house had lost one of its prominent leaders and individual members, a pleasant and able colleague.

Mr. McMillan, of Tennessee, stated that it was the desire of the committee of ways and means to close the discussion on the wool bill Saturday. He asked that an evening session be held tonight for general debate. There was no objection and the house went into committee of the whole, Mr. Blount of Georgia in the chair on the free wool bill.

IN AUSTIN TODAY.

After the Clerks Who Write for Newspapers.
Special to The News.

AUSTIN, March 30.—In the senate today it was decided to reduce the clerical force on the grounds that some of the clerks were too closely allied with the press for the comfort of some of the members. The discussion was spirited all on one side, the side against the clerks.

The Australian ballot bill was discussed and amended freely and went to engrossment.

Pope, Sears, Townsend and Lubbock spoke pathetically on the death of ex-Senator Maetze and Abercrombie.

The house is still discussing the Brown railroad bond bill. It may pass, but not until the protest of a few fair and honest men are filed against it.

A HOTEL IN BOSTON

Burns and the Guests are Frightened and Some Badly Injured.

BOSTON, Mass., March 30.—At 4 o'clock this morning fifty guests, among whom were members of the Shenandoah company were awakened to find themselves enveloped in a dense smoke. They became panic stricken and several jumped out through windows and were seriously injured. Ernest W. Perry, Leonister, Mass., is probably fatally injured. Thos. Southward, of Cambridge, Port and a man named Stockwell, of Laconia are painfully injured. Mr. Southward mistook the opening of the elevator shaft and jumped down three stories. In the attics were six chamber maids, who were with difficulty rescued by the firemen and brought down the ladders. Loss on building will not be over thirty thousand.

Destructive Fire.

CINCINNATI, March 30.—Early this morning the seven-story building occupied by the Ohio Spiral Spring Buggy company, northwest corner of Sycamore and North Court streets was burned, entailing a loss of $140,000.

THE INDEMNITY

For the New Orleans Killing Agreed Upon and it is $20,000.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Reports are current here that the government has agreed to pay Italy an indemnity of $20,000 for the killing in New Orleans and that this proposition has been accepted and Minister Porter will return from Rome at once. The state department is, of course, silent on the subject, but there is reason to believe there is some truth in the story. It is not probable that an absolute agreement has been entered into, as the matter probably might have been submitted to congress. But there's reason to believe that the president and state department have indicated a willingness to so recommend to congress. It is supposed that this is the proposition which came from the Italian government, and the feeling here is that if this sum will heal the diplomatic wounds, the easiest and best thing will be to pay it.

BUCKET SHOP FIEND.

In the Hole for $200, and His Father Seeks Redress.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 30.—Ike Steiner, a minor, dabbled here in "bucket shop" and claims to have lost about fourteen hundred dollars. The bucket shop manager claims Steiner played for nine months and finally quit about $200 in the hole. Michael Steiner, father of Ike, filed suit today in the Circuit court against the bucket shop manager for $2,000. The father has notified the bucket shop manager to desist trading with Ike, but latter traded anyhow under the name of Ike Johnson.

Dynamiters in Paris.

PARIS, March 30.—It is affirmed in certain quarters that there was another explosion of dynamite in this city late yesterday afternoon. This time in the building of the Credit Lyonnais, one of the largest banking institutions of the city. The extent of the damage not yet learned. It is said several persons were injured.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—For Texas generally fair, southwesterly winds, warmer in northern portions.

A Proposed Extension.

It is rumored that in a few days the work of extending the Citizens' Street Railway Company will extend their line out to the Manntown Park, and finally on out to the race track. This extension would be of great benefit to property owners beyond Bell's Hill and so enhance the value of real estate as to justify them in lending the company substantial aid in carrying out this project. The park above referred to is susceptible of being made one of the most beautiful places in or around Waco, and would, hence, be a place of common resort for parties desiring to spend a few hours away from the heat and dust of the city, during the summer months, where the refreshing breezes would fan away, during leisure hours, the dull cares of everyday business life and a quaff of the pure artesian water, there already flowing, give new life and zest for its resumption on the morrow. Let this extension be made and ere long thereafter Waco will have at least one park to which she can point with pride.

SANGER - BROS.

Crawford Democrats.

CRAWFORD, Tex., March 28, '92.
Editor Waco News:

The Democratic voters of precinct No. 7, McLennan county, Tex., met at the school building in mass meeting this evening.

Dr. Brown having been elected Saturday evening at an informal meeting, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of J. E. Horn to Waco, offered his resignation in favor of Mr. Harrison J. Allen as he had received the appointment to fill said vacancy by the chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee Hon. Jno. F. Flint.

Dr. Brown also moved the ratification of the appointment which was carried unanimously.

Mr. H. Warren moved that the said appointee be instructed to work for "primaries." The motion was lost 52 to 32. The following resolutions were offered by Rev. J. M. Wright.

Whereas, There is an organized effort on the part of Monopoly, its devotees and advocates of this state to elect the Hon. Geo. Clark governor of Texas and by said election thereby virtually destroys the Railroad Commission ratified by the people of Texas.

Resolved, That we the Democrats of Precinct No. 7 of McLennan county in mass meeting assembled do heartily endorse the administration of Gov. J. S. Hogg and recommend his re-election.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent the Galveston News, Waco Day, and Waco News for publication.

Prof. Walker moved that the appointee be sent uninstructed, which carried.

VINDICATED IN THE COURTS.

Mrs. Doss is Divorced From Mr. Kennedy and Assumes Her Former Name.

After long and tedious litigation between man and wife in the McLennan county courts the trouble was finally settled today in the district court by a decision in favor of the plaintiff in the case of Mrs. B. J. Kennedy vs. J. M. Kennedy suit for divorce. The fight in the courts however has not been confined to the suit for divorce. A difficulty many months ago in which violence was used resulted in two complaints being lodged against his wife by Mr. Kennedy. In one of these she was convicted in the justice court, but an appeal to the county court resulted in her acquittal. The other case tried before Justice Gallagher resulted in a verdict in her favor. In the mean time Mr. James I. Moore her attorney filed suit for divorce for his client and today Judge Goodrien granted the same together with right to re-assume her former name, that of Mrs. Bettie J. Doss. Thus it is seen that Mrs. Doss has been vindicated in all things by the courts, and her many friends will rejoice with her in her triumphs.

The carpenter who was hurt at the Waco Female College yesterday, was Columbus Seitzler. He was carried to his residence 908 South Fifteenth street. Dr. Curtis, his physician, states that his wound is not serious being only scalp wound. The skull was laid bare for about four inches. He suffers more from the concussion than the wound. The cause of the accident was the breaking of the supports of a derrick and was similar in every way, except its fatal results, to the accident in which Contractor Ulander lost his life in the construction of the city hall.
